

FISA Development Intern

Do you see the potential?

Do you want to join an exciting startup with an ambitious social mission? Do you want to contribute to the development of a bold and innovative business model with high responsibility from day one? Do you want to do something revolutionary and impactful? Here at Wedu, we hire highly motivated, passionate individuals who are innovative and thoughtful in their approach to getting things done.

Founded in 2012, Wedu is a unique leadership development organization and social enterprise that aims to unlock the leadership potential of young women in Asia to become change-makers in their communities. We do this by providing lifelong, virtual mentorship and innovative financing options for higher education to inspiring individuals who are committed to changing the status quo in their communities – we call these young women 'Rising Stars'. Today, we are proud to support 301 Rising Stars across 19 countries who form the pillar of a growing community, that we believe has the power to achieve large-scale social impact.

The Role

Future Income Sharing Agreements (FISAs) are a mechanism to finance the higher education needs of Rising Stars. FISAs are neither loans nor scholarships, and have been designed to be affordable and flexible for students.

As the FISA Development Intern, you will play a key role in supporting the expansion of FISAs to new countries, while also contributing to the enhancement of policies, procedures and processes around FISAs.

This is a unique opportunity to shape the future of Wedu, and influence the development of higher education financing solutions for needy and deserving students.

We are looking for a candidate who is creative, detail-oriented, and passionate about our mission. In particular, the role involves:

- Researching and analyzing relevant data on countries planned for FISA expansion
- Engaging with potential supporters / partners – educational institutions, NGOs, multi-lateral organizations
- Reviewing best-practices related to policies, procedures and processes, and supporting the development of suitable tools to present FISAs to diverse stakeholders
- Contributing to the team effort by accomplishing other tasks as needed

Be the change you want to see

Wedu is a very entrepreneurial organization that is open to new ideas. If you have innovations to propose, make your case and say it out loud, conquer the team and you will have all the support required to implement your ideas. Leadership starts inside.

Do you have what it takes?

- You have completed or are currently working towards completing a University degree in any field
- You enjoy research and analysis, and have successfully used your research and analysis skills in previous projects or studies
- You have a background or interest in economics, finance, business, management or related areas – this is preferred but not essential
- You pay high attention to detail
- You have reasonable writing skills in English
- You have reasonable Excel skills, and have used it in previous projects or studies
- You are a self-starter with a strong work ethic
- You have the ability to maintain a high level of confidentiality
- You have a passionate commitment to promote social change and emerging female leaders from underprivileged communities

Organizational arrangements

Wedu is looking for a candidate who will be able to start as soon as possible, with a strong preference for those who are already based in Bangkok. We expect from you a minimum commitment of 3 months with at least 15-20 hours in-office per week. This is a part-time, unpaid position but may be considered for an intern-to-hire arrangement, depending on previous experience, organizational need and performance in the internship.

Apply Now!

Interested candidates should complete the application form on our website at Get Involved - Work With Us. If you are experiencing problems with the form, please email talent@weduglobal.org.

Applications are accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis, and qualified candidates will be contacted via email for an interview. As part of the selection process, you will also be expected to conduct a mini-exercise to further demonstrate your fit and interest with the role.

Do you see the potential?

